ONLY

Level: A

Word Count: 22

Key High-Frequency Words: I

Vocabulary: dance, eat, fun, listen, read, sing, write

Thematic Focus: Identity

Sources: The photos in this book depict the following communities and Nations: Cree First Nations, Inuvik, Lutsel K'e Dene First Nation, Nisga'a Nation, Rankin Inlet.

Additional Information: Page 5 features a Dene Elder. Indigenous Elders pass on cultural knowledge and teachings. It is important for children to spend time with Elders. Page 2 features a Nisga'a child in regalia dancing at the Nass River Valley Pow Wow. A pow wow is a celebration of Indigenous culture and arts. The photo on the cover, title page, and page 7 shows a young boy participating in the sack race at the Muskrat Jamboree in Inuvik, NWT. After a long arctic winter, people celebrate the spring thaw with music, games, and feasting at the Jamboree.

What Can I Do?

Written by Jackie Taypotat and Calvin Racette

I can dance.

I can eat.

I can sing.

I can listen.

I can read.

I can write.

I can have fun.

Let's Talk

1. What are some of the things the children in this book can do?
2. What can you do?
